Traditionally the first auditorium session of the year was given by the Association to introduce to us our student representatives and to have us, the students, witness the swearing-in ceremonies.

AUDITORIUM SPOTLIGHT IN REVIEW

The grand finale of the annual Christmas program was the singing of the "Hallelujah Chorus" by the members of the entire vocal department.

Thanks to everyone who helped to present our auditorium sessions this past year. We enjoyed them and learned something interesting from each one. In September the Association auditorium brought us closer to our Hammond High government. The Standard Oil Company taught us about the wonders of oil and the advancements in the field of petroleum during Oil Progress Week. Once again we heard from the Association through the Mardi Gras stage show, "An American in Paris." At Christmas time we travelled across the U.S.A. with Miss Esther Waterbury and the vocal department. We learned about the far-off land of Burma and her people. We heard about the United Nations, our weather, and the railroads. During Brotherhood Week we took a musical tour around the world. There were other auditoriums just as enjoyable, but these were the best of the school year.

FOCUSING THE FALL PLAY

"THE CURIOUS SAVAGE"

By John Patrick

"And, if I laugh at any mortal thing . . .
'Tis that I may not weep."

—Byron

The Cast includes:

This sculptured white angel watched over us from the window of the main stairway landing.

In its traditonal place in front of the ouditorium stood our tree, glistening with white lights, golden balls, and pastel ornaments.

We from Miss Olga Schubkegel's art classes hope you enjoyed "Christmas in the Halls" this year. Breaking away from the traditional colors, we chose soft pastels, white, gold and silver, a world of magical colors. The entire project included the Christmas tree, the arch over the door of auditorium foyer, the display case, the windows of the main stairway landing, the mobiles hanging from the lights, and the elongated ornaments from the ceiling. To let a little secret out, we used scrap material, such as egg cartons and coat hangers, to make the colorful mobiles and tree ornaments. We had fun decorating the halls and hope that you enjoyed them.

THE FOCUS CENTERS ON

Following the College Panel auditorium, Albert Schulmeyer, Melanie Kulko, and Mr. Ernest Alexander discussed college problems further with college counselors Mr. Enrico Mortin from Indiana University, Dr. Wenonah Brewer from Indiana State Teachers' College, and Mr. Sterling Show from Purdue University.

Mr. W. Sloder of Crown Point, representing the Colorado School of Mines, discussed the school's program with Kenneth Hamilton and his parents at College Night.

PLANNING THE FUTURE

Together with Morton High School we held our seventh annual College Night in November here at Hammond High. Representatives from over seventy different universities, colleges, nursing schools, business colleges, and art schools were present from all over the nation. We who plan to go to college, had the opportunity to find out advantages, admission requirements social life, and activities. Many of our parents came along to help us judge which school best fitted our needs. We left that night with a better idea on how to plan for our future.

Helen Kindle, Mrs. William Gregos, and Sharon Bauerlein listened attentively as the Rev. Marion Fosh, postor of a Wheaton church, told them about Bob Jones University in South Corolina.

THE WASHINGTON TRIP

As the train sped through Ohio, we gathered in our own groups and munched on potato chips and drank Pepsi.

Life aboard the train both coming and going was a mixture of falling suitcases, wary treks in search of soda pop, staring out the window, sleeping on the floor, or on couches in the lounges

Found in the stacks at Colonial Williamsburg, Marilyn Yarck possibly could have told a lie or could have been the victim of a practical joke.

Before turning in for the night we gathered in the lounge of the Old Boy steamer as we travelled from Old Point Comfort, Virginia back to Washington on the Potamac River.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

if you were lucky, gossiping, giving impromptu hair cuts, and singing the "Washington Waddle" every ten minutes.

Squeezed in between, are nostalgic memories of those bus drivers, beautiful fall scenery and that dead skunk on Skyline Drive in Virginia, delicious gingerbread cookies at Williamsburg, and getting sea sick aboard the Old Bay Line steamer.

We become weary as our long journey neared its end. The trip had been exciting, interesting, and well worth our time.

Home once again! Hammond looked better than ever even though the some buildings, trains and smoke were still there.

PARENTS, TEACHERS AND

Following his return from Purdue University to check on the progress of the '56 graduates attending the university, Mr. Robert Brock met with their parents.

Before the evening's activities at the PTA annual "Back to School Night," Suzie Ebert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Trapeau, discussed school studies and activities with Miss Leona Hawver. During the evening Suzie's parents experienced a typical school day.

STUDENTS IN FOCUS

For six weeks these students shared the spotlight with their broken legs. It may have been hard to climb stairs, dance, drive the family car, or ice skate, but broken legs could get sympathy from teachers, that long-needed fall vacation, a lot of curious new friends, and also served the useful purpose as autograph books.

Paul Hinton and other Association officers are discussing the various services performed by the Community Chest. Each panel member explained what the money, the Washington Jr. High School pupils contributed would be used for. Each report was factual as well as interesting because the panel members had visited an agency helped by the Community Chest. Some of the agencies visited were the Boy Scouts, Brooks House, the Salvation Army, and the Good Will Industries.

FOCUSING

—Expanded Arts Project

—Booster Club Project

THE SPOTLIGHT ON A NIGHT OF FUN

Don Orbon, paying no attention to the antics of Sue Williams, Peggy Hafner and Dottie Heckmon, bought a toffy opple from girls working at the Y-Teens booth.

Leaving the confusion and noise of the Mardi Gras midway below, Annette Kacal and Dove Quick found a moment to themselves.

Cheerleader Ruthie Leland led the enthusiastic crowd as they gathered about the traditional banfire, which opened the homecoming celebration.

THE STUDENTS' SPIRIT

A whirl of cheerleaders and a throng of over three thousand fans cheered our team on to victory.

The full Homecoming spirit was there but the '37 football champs were missing from the float at the half-time ceremonies.

Tossing our shoes aside, we danced holes in our socks at the "Wildcat Waddle," the homecoming soc-hop, held at the Civic Center.

FOCUSED ON THE HOMECOMING

Tension mounted as the score stood 0-0 and Frank Saculla, a first string tackle, was injured.

SPOTLIGHTING A NIGHT OF FANTASY

A PICTURE TO REMEMBER—

Sharan Hoeman, Bob Madura, Sonja Disney and Jerry Donaldson

To complete the weekend in true prom style, the promenaders flocked to the Dunes the next day to relax and soak up the sun.

Rushing home from school, we girls were in a dither, setting our hair and fixing our nails, while our dates hurried to pick up their tuxes and our flowers.

The time finally came when our dates arrived. Cameras flashed and our parents sent us off with "have fun" blessings.

Juniors, seniors, and guests gathered at before-prom coke parties and then left for the prom "Fantasia" presented by the junior class. We danced and danced to the enjoyable music of Jimmy Featherstone and his orchestra. The climax of the evening was the traditional Grand March.

After the prom each of us went our own way; some of us went to Chicago for dinner, a floor show and more dancing; others dined at a local spot; some went to after-prom parties at friends' homes.

The evening had been terrific ! !

It was truly a "Forest of Dreams" at the Winter Semi-Formal, an annual affair presented by our Association.

BRIGHT NIGHTS FALL

INTO THE FOCUS

At Hammond High there is a place in sports for all of us, either in the varsity-B-team program, in intramurals, or in the physical education classes. Each of us should be able to find some interest among the many sports offered: golf, tennis, baseball, track, football, bowling, swimming, and basketball for the boy; socker volleyball, tennis, basketball, archery, swimming, softball, and ping-pong for the girls.

Participation in sports is a path for the development of ourselves. In sports we learn basic fundamentals, gain new skills, and strengthen our bodies. We develop sportsmanship, learning to be a good loser and a graceful winner. We exhibit more self-control and show more cooperation through taking part in sports. Sports has become our means for becoming better citizens through physical, mental, and emotional development.

INTRAMURALS FOR ALL

The girls' intramural program has been in full swing since it started out with speedball in the fall. Throughout the school year Miss Dieterich and Miss Hurley sponsored such things as volleyball and softball tourneys and arranged water ballets for the Mardi Gras.

BASEBALL

Good weather in March provided baseball coach, Jim Scott, a chance to have scrimmage games and to get a good look at this year's team. The team has worked many hard hours in the gym when they were not able to go out and scrimmage. While working inside they kept their arms loosened up and did not let their batting eye grow stale.

Ten lettermen were back from last years team. Among them were, Captain Phil Albert, ace pitcher Rich Neely, and a slugging freshman, Bob Selva. Other returning lettermen were Dennis Orr, Pete Milobar, Paul Ross, Bob Jurgenson, Bruce Stringer, Sam Vaughn and Sid Pettigrew.

G. A. C. PROMOTES TEAMWORK

Members of G.A.C. are girls who are interested in girls athletics and sportsmanship. Just wanting to be a member isn't enough; a girl must earn a membership by participating in sports. Two points are given for each night of regular practice and ten for each night of tournament play. Once a girl has fifty points she is accepted as a member.

By heading a sport, participating, or refereeing, a G.A.C. member continues earning honors, a minor H and a major H. These awards are presented at award parties by Miss Marion Dieterich, sponsor, and Jackie Bruno, president.

We students get out of high school what we put into it. The number of us who participate in clubs put in time and effort to achieve a goal. What we get out of it is a satisfaction of achievement, responsibility, respect, and a lot of fun.

We are grateful to the club sponsors who spend their free time organizing clubs and offering advice about problems and purposes.

Clubs benefit the entire school body; through their efforts we have the Mardi Gras, soc hops, and the courtesy campaign. The club program helps Hammond High to graduate responsible citizens with well rounded educations.

OUR ASSOCIATION

Under the capable leadership of Paul Hinton Kurt Markel and Robin Cline, our Association worked toward the betterment of Hammond High. In September the incoming freshmen were orientated and were given a copy of "The Purple Book," an Association publication. The Association then went on to make plans for the Homecoming ceremonies, College Night, and the Mardi Gras. In the spring of the year the Association held elections for next year's leaders as well as sponsoring Association Week with its traditional banquet and auditorium session. Throughout the year our Association held various drives such as the March of Dimes drive and the Community Chest drive.

SPEAKING AND DEBATING

DEBATE TEAM

Sudents participating in speech and debate work at Hammond High are so widely spread that it is impossible to round them up for a group picture. Under the watchful eye of Mr. Reed, speech and debate work was divided into two groups, interschool events and community services. There were around thirty interschool events and twenty community services. In community services Paul Hinton represented us in Rotary Oratorical; Lenny Clark represented us in the Optimist Club Contest; and Rita Cromwell represented us in the American Legion Contest. In interschool events Glenn Wickelgren, Lenny Clark, Rita Cromwell, and George Glendening were leaders in the single events and were our debate team. The subject for debate was "Resolved: That the Federal Goverment should sustain the price of major agricultural products at not less than ninety per cent parity." Laurel Hall and Carol Kelley were our representatives for the Alexander Hamilton Bi-Centennial Contest.

Our Yearbook Editor this year was Jean Sippel. Assisting her were Peg Rudolph, picture editor, Laurel Hall, copy editor, Ken Abbott, sports editor, and Joanie Murphy, business manager. The staff attempted to present the story of the year through word and larger picures in the '57 Dunes.

The staff wants to thank Mr. A. T. Bolt, editorial adviser and Mr. Robert Dunham for their time and help. We also wish to acknowledge our photographer, Bodie Studios, our engraver, the Jahn and Ollier Company, our printers, DeLaney Printing & Litho, DeLuxe Craft Manufacturing Company for our covers and all the Dunes agents who helped to sell the Dunes, the story of the year.

THE CALUMET HERALD

Mary Razich, editor.and Linda Hunter, associate editor

"Hurry up! The printer has to have this copy by 1:00 p.m." "Don't these typewriters ever work?" "Somebody call the engraver—quick!"

Doors slam, phones ring and staff typewriters click away as the staff of the Calumet Herald prepares to meet another deadline.

Twenty such deadlines and twenty issues were originally planned for volume 33 of Hammond High's school newspaper, which this year appeared in an experimental tabloid form.

Once each semester journalism I classes used their newspaper experience to produce a Cub edition of the paper.

We at Hammond High recognize the teaching shortage and are trying to interest future college students in teaching as their profession. Interest in teaching is promoted through the Future Teachers of America, a discussion group, the student teaching program in classes, and the cadet teaching program, a senior activity.

Perhaps one of the memories that will linger in our minds long after we leave Hammond High will be the auditorium programs presented by the vocal department under the direction of Miss Esther Waterbury and her assistant Miss Lorraine Linke. The Yuletide auditorium program carried the theme, "Christmas, U.S.A." After a tour through the country they stopped at Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, where the entire group sang the "Hallelujah Chorus" as the finale.

In February the vocal department presented a Brotherhood program with song and dance from Latin America, Hawaii, Ukraine, Poland, and Scotland. The highlight of the program came at the end when the members of the vocal department formed a wheel of nations, singing "Marching Along Together."

For the traditional Easter program the department put on "Spring—the Season of Hope," featuring light tunes during the first half and sacred numbers during the second half. A touching moment came when the entire group sang the "Holy City" for the grand finale.

Besides the auditorium sessions for the student body, the vocalists sang at various community functions and concerts. In December the annual Christmas Vesper Concert was held; in April, their spring concert "Days to Remember." The singing of the A Cappella Choir at commencement was the final activity of the year.

During the Christmas season the A Cappella Choir under the direction of Miss Esther Waterbury caralled at Minas's, a department store in the downtown area of Hammond.

CLASSICAL TO JAZZ

The instrumental department consists of the Concert Band and Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Gekeler and the Cadet Band under the direction of Mr. Stanley Zaley. In January the entire department presented Winter Concert, featuring "pop" tunes. The Concert Band gave an auditorium program in March with selections varying from semi-classical to jazz. Then in April the band captured a first rating in the State Contest for the third consecutive year.

Individuals who secured places in the State Contest were John Bauerlein, Peter Price, Connie Ward, first place in the clarinet division; Ed Adrian and Frank Rozich, second place in the cornet division; Tom Calligan, second place in the trombone division; Gloria Midkiff first place in the flute division.

In group activities, Gloria Midkiff and Sue Conrad won first place with a flute duet. Two clarinet quartets took first place, Peter Price, John Bauerlein, Judy Meinzer, and Nancy Van Dyke in one group and Nancy Van Dyke, Janet Stillsen, Fotis Eliou, and Doris Davis in the second.

At Hammond High we live brotherhood in our daily lives. As in the brotherhood assembly, where the lives of people in foreign lands were depicted by songs, speeches, and dances, we constantly come in contact with the need for friendly social associations with our neighbors both near and far.

By learning to get along with our associates in our high school days, we become enriched with the blessings of brotherhood which we will appreciate in later life.

After we graduate from high school, we will start a new life either in college, business, or marriage. In all of these environments, brotherhood, tied in with religion, education, politics, home life, and business, plays an important part.

PEOPLE

The Freshman Class officers were Dave Powell, vice-president, Jahn Tweedle, president, Jane Koufman, treasurer, and Barbara Rose, secretary.

FRESHMEN CLASS

With a world of new experiences awaiting them, the freshmen began their four years of studies at Hammond High. Even though the "freshies" received the traditional teasing, they found the "groove" and soon were deep in their studies, activities, and the fun of "high school days". They met new faces, joined clubs, and participated in most of the activities. They elected John Tweedle, Dave Powell, Barbara Rose, and Jane Kaufman as their officers, had a party in the fall, and planned another for spring. After struggling through library lessons, swimming, geography, and other subjects common to freshmen, it was nearly next year.

The Hammond High Pledge

We will never bring disgrace to this our Hammond High School by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our comrades; we will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the Hammond High School, both alone and with many; we will revere and obey the Hammond High School laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others; we will strive unceasingly to quicken the pupil's sense of Hammond High School civic duty; that thus in all these ways, we may transmit Hammond High School greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

At the beginning of the year the present sophomore class welcomed a new group of students from Munster and Irving to their ranks. As the year sped by, the sophomores were in the center of activity. They elected their class officers and senators, paid their dues, and found time to enter more and new activities. The sophomores, working with the other underclassmen, wholeheartedly carried out their part in the courtesy campaign. Dancing in the girl's gym, filmstrips, and picketing for courtesy were all a part of the campaign to emphasizing Boy-Girl Relations.

The saphomores elected George Glendening as president, Lenny Clark as vice-president, Gayle Jahnson as secretary and Shelia Wilson as treasurer.

A long hall and a lonely sophomore girl await next year when she will be an upperclassman.

Before school we gothered by the main entrance ta hear and give the latest news abaut school, dating, and sports. Same days were warm and sunny while ather days were cool and bleak. Nevertheless, we always enjoyed our morning "gab" sessians.

Another excuse of ours to escape study hall was ta get our snap-a-graphs taken far the Dunes. Those af us who bought them knew af our plight in the yearbook. Those who didn't really had a surprise awaiting them the day they got their Dunes!

OUR ADOPTED SON

Three years ago Hammond High adopted a son, Kim Young Ku, a Korean orphan, through the Foster Parents Plan for War Children. He is in the fifth grade, enjoys school, and likes playing baseball with the other children at the orphanage in Kunsan, Korea. Following is a letter from Kim.

Dear Foster Parents in Hammond High School:

Here in Korea the weather has become very cold lately. This morning I got up at six o'clock and attend the morning meeting in the yard. After the meeting we all children in the orphanage cleaned our Home building and it was so cold. But we did it bravely. Today we received a book-case, pencils, and a warm sweater which were sent from the Foster Parents Plan. As they are very nice, we are so happy to have them. It will make our school attending more happy. On the way to school the younger children cried as it was too cold. In the afternoon we went out to the rice field and enjoyed play on the ice with my friends. From December 22 our winter vacation will start then I can play on the ice as much as I like.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

From Your Foster Child

Kim Young Kyu

The students have completely supported their son through various means. Money was raised through a soc hop sponsored by the Social Studies Department and a wishing well in the main hall. The H-Men donated funds to Kim. Students donations amounted to about a years supply of clothing for Kim.

Our son, Kim.

The proceeds of the H-Men's Semi-Formal went into the Kim-Fund.

JUNIOR CLASS

A very successful Junior event this year as well as one of the most outstanding highlights of the year is the Prom. Anticipation and excitement reign supreme the minute mid-term exams are completed and the the Prom is in sight.

The chosen theme this year is "Fountain of Dreams" and was portrayed by posters drawn by the publicity committee headed by Dan Peifer, with Elizabeth Doyle, John Pate, Nick Poulton and Barbara Rietz. The refreshment committee consists of Rae Ellen Volkman, Karin Stuart, Jane Wood, Sharon Prugh. Bid Committee: Carol Burkhalter, Joanne Cameron, Gayle Johnson and Penny Wilkins. Program and Tickets: Doris Rosenau, Donna Cornwall, Phyllis Dillon and Virginia Mitchell. Decorations: Betsy Cole, Susie McLean, John Millett, Jack Minsberg, and Jim Vacendak.

Miss Lovetta Dixon and Mr. A. T. Bolt were Junior Class sponsors.

Finally after o long wait, the juniors got their class rings. Although they complimented the other members of the class on their rings, each juniar's own ring seemed to be better looking and more meaningful.

Junior Class Officers

The Junior Class elected Carmen Mason as treasurer, Ruth Leland as secretary, Lynda Memering as vice-president and Dennis Egnatz as president.

Commencement—our last time together as a group, followed the traditional pattern—the playing of "Pomp and Circumstance" by Mr. J. T. Murl, the singing of the A Cappella Choir, and the receiving of our diplomas.

SENIOR CLASS OF 1957

The days of high school, happy ones of fun and laughter, are now over for the seniors. The past four years are now memories of the football games, soc- hops, bonfires, Mardi Gras', sectionals, spring semi-formal, plays and the proms. The seniors spent nearly a thousand days learning and preparing for that day when they would use all the knowledge and understanding they had stored up from their days of high school education.

The last year had been a busy one for the seniors. In the fall they had their pictures taken; then in the winter they paid their dues and ordered graduation invitations. As spring rolled around, caps and gowns were ordered, prom tickets were bought and Baccalaureate took place. Finally Commencement Day arrived and the senior class left to go out into the world, some to continue their education, some to find their place in the business world.

A common scene about school during the last few days is the signing of the Dunes, a reminder of days past at Hammond High.

Honor Day was a day dedicated to those seniors who achieved success in their individual fields of study. Those outstanding students were recognized in an auditorium program.

SENIOR MEMORIES

As we seniors look back over our last year at Hammond High, we find many unforgettable memories . . . the excitement of the greatest football season since we came to this school . . . the soc hops afterwards . . . the blazing bonfires on the cool autumn evenings . . . the mumblings of Mrs. Paddy at the Fall Play . . . the gaiety and laughter in the halls at the Mardi Gras.

Winter rolled around and so did the Winter Semi-Formal . . . the evening was romantic beneath soft lights . . . then Christmas was here and gone . . . our days in January were spent in final cramming for exams. Tournament time came . . . we lost in the semi-final play of the sectionals, but we were still proud of our team.

As Spring edged her way in, we realized our days at Hammond High were nearing their end. We will always remember the H-Men's Semi-Formal . . . the laugh-filled Senior Play . . . the night of the Prom, exciting and fun . . . the solemnness at Baccaulaureate . . . the wish to get the Dunes . . and finally Commencement . . . wearing steel gray caps and gowns we proudly received our diplomas, symbolizing four years of learning about the world we are about to face . . . looking back at our days in class we recall the challenges we faced, our successes and our failures . . . our teachers and their own little quips . . . "You can't beat the kids!" was especially one we will remember . . . high school days are now our past . . . The future waits for us with open arms and many new worlds.

OUR FUTURE

IN MATH . . .

The Industrial Co-ordination Program, arranged by Mr. Norman Beyer, presented a series of lectures during class time to stimulate the student's interest in a specialized vocation. In the picture at the right, Mr. William Bachman and Mr. Bertram from a Chicago area architectural firm were speaking to a mathematics class, promoting industrial engineering. Other industrial men spoke about other phases of engineering.

IN BIOLOGY . . .

Dr. Svihla of the Biology Division of Argonne National Laboratories in Lamont, Illinois, spoke on the increasing need for biologists botanists, and zoologists in the biology classes. In the physics and chemistry classes other prominent men in their field encouraged vocations in the physics and chemistry fields. The speakers encouraged students to enter these fields showing their rewards, satisfactions, and opportunities.

IN CHEMISTRY

Chemistry students heard from Mr. Jackson, assistant chief chemist at Lever Brothers in Hammond. The steel and oil industries also sent men to speak to the students. In conjunction with this Mr. R. E. Weiss and Mr. Walter Ford of the Chamber of Commerce spoke in the social studies classes on "Industry and the City of Hammond."

The new faculty members were Dr. Robert Allen, Mr. Victor Georgas, Mr. Dean Johns, Miss Virginia Esten, Mrs. Jean Webster, Mrs. Ermina Donham, Miss Mary Hurley, Miss Lorraine Linke, and Miss Oza Cunningham.

Second row:
Mr. Dan Gavit, business monager; Mr. John Beckman, attorney; Mr. Columbus Smith, treasurer; Mr. M. H. Thorsen, Director of Attendonce & Child Welfare; Mr. Chas Schonert, Superintendent of Maintenance; Mr. R. B. Miller, Assistant Superintendent of Schools.

Congratulations Principal Oliver L. Rapp on your eight successful years as principal of Hammond High School, this year as Dr. Rapp. Although the job of principal requires conferences with business and professional personnel, students and parents, as well as conferences outside of school round the clock, Dr. Rapp found enough time to earn his Doctor of Education degree at the University of Illinois, which he received last June. Dr. Rapp was also honored this year by being invited to go on a defense tour in and around Washington, D. C. Here's hoping, Dr. Rapp, your next year with H.H.S. will be just as successful.

Our office staff, Hazel Lindstrom, Pat Ovanek and Joan Pawenski, are all graduates of Hammond High. Maybe that is why they are so capable and faithful in carrying out their many responsibilities.

The responsibilities we students are most familiar with are calling our homes to make sure absentees are sick ones, boarding our lost fountain pens, books, gym shoes, tank suits, pony tail clips, wallets, and car keys, granting permission to make those very necessary outside calls, and patiently listening to our most dramatic excuses for being five minutes late.

It is certain that without the office staff our school couldn't run smoothly. Hazel, who has been here almost thirty years, is practically indispensable to our school.

STARTING THE YEAR

B. I. E. DAY

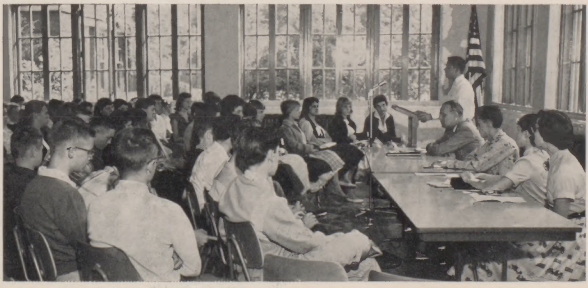

Highlighting the first month of school was a day off for the students and an interesting trip for the teachers to see industry in action. Though the transportation divisions were the most popular, many teachers chose to see banks, small industries, oil refineries, and steel mills in the area.

These trips, arranged through the Chamber of Commerce and the schools, attempted to do two things: to give the teachers a background with which to better understand their pupils' environment and to enable the teacher to find out what to stress in classes toward his students' future employment.

In May the industries become our guests on B.L.I.E. Day. They are shown exhibits, listen to talks, and observe classes in order to see what the school system is doing toward training future employees.

FRESHMEN ORIENTATION

In August and September our Association sponsors Freshman Orientation to acquaint the new freshmen with Hammond High. Beside receiving their class schedules, they are given "Open Doors" and "The Purple Book", student handbooks. Assembling in the cafeteria, the "freshies" listened to speeches by the Association officers, Paul Hinton, Kurt Markel, and Robin Cline; the president of Booster Club, Elaine Kruger; a member of The Board of Education; faculty members; and their counselor, Mr. Robert Brock.

Dick D. Ferguson, Prop.

You're saying goodbye to your high school days—but you're saying hello to new, exciting days ahead. Congratulations and welcome to the future!

In this future, Inland Steel's opportunities are yours . . . opportunities open to high school grads.

If you have some mechanical training or aptitude, there are careers open in many fields: as machinists, welders, electricians, patternmakers, pipefitters, boilermakers. There are careers to follow in metallurgy and chemistry. And there are opportunities in the office and clerical fields. The job of production—making the steel needed to keep America strong—offers a challenge to alert, young men.

You can have a "get-ahead" future through Inland's training opportunities. You can get apprentice or on-the-job training to become more skilled in your trade. You also can get college training and a college certificate through the Purdue-Inland Training Program, a program where Inland sponsors you through this course at Purdue Extension.

Inland has been in the busy Calumet Region for more than a half-century. We'll be here in the future, too, because we're a basic industry, making a product used by everyone, including the housewife opening a can of peas and the G.I. firing an artillery shell.

Inland Steel Company serves the nation—and it can serve you, too, in the exciting days ahead.
